

MOBILE STUDIOS - A EUROPEAN PROJECT BY PUBLIC ART LAB

From April to May 2006, the Mobile Studios will travel as a nomadic multimedia platform to Bratislava, Budapest, Belgrade and Sofia, and will temporarily possess the urban spaces in these cities.

The Mobile Studios are an internationally networked project of a mobile, autonomous production laboratory for young artists, musicians, performers and cultural programmers. In a subsequent programme, artists and cultural producers will be invited to recreate the studio as directors.
